CITY ITEMS.

THE ITALIAN OPERA .- To-night La Favorita is again given at the Opera House, with Parodi. Lorini, Beneventano and Novelli. This is the last night but three of the regular season. We bave not space this morning to speak of Patti's benefit, which came off last night.

Maretzek's Benefit, with a superb programme is fixed for next Wednesday. The Opera of Semiramide, with the glorious, refreshing music of Rossini, and the performance of Strakesch and Hauser between the acts. We are glad to learn that the tickets are selling rapidly. A meeting of the Committee will be held to night at the Opera COLD.-Yesterday was snowy and monotonous in the morning, but the clouds cleared away at poon, and the evening came on crisp, and keen, and cold. The temperature seemed nearly as low as at any previous time this winter.

THE COMMON COUNCIL .- On Wednesday night both branches of the Common Council adjourned until the first Monday in May next. For the smallest favors we are taught to be thankful, and we think we feel duly grateful for this last dispensation. Were it not for an ugly proviso in the City Charter, whereby the Boards can again be assembled before May, we should rejoice with exceeding great joy-for we should be happy in the reflection that there was a brief respite of the drain upon the public treasury, and a chance at least of killing off the infamous Gas contract, which now rests in the Board of Assistants. Mighty events have before now transpired within the brief space of three months, and who knows but in that time the Assistants may be induced to look to the good of their constituents and to vote against squandering any more of the people's meney upon infamous contracts like that now be fore them. We know this is anticipating muchbut strange things have come to pass, and we hope their day has not entirely gone by.

-The closing doings in the Board of Aldermen were not of an extraordinary character. Petitions were presented, motions made and resolutions offered upon an innumerable variety of subjects from the removal of a pump to the renewal of a crosswalk. Late in the evening, the table having been cleared of papers, the bammer fell and the Aldermen were released from further labors until the first Monday in May.

-The Assistants waded through several re ports, relative to renewing sidewalks, gravely considered the propriety of removing an old pamp, and authorized the Street Commissioner to give his attention to the subject of adding one lamp post to the number already in existence. They then appropriated $2,500 to celebrate Washing ton's Birthday-$300 for some new flags-referred the swindling Gas contract to a Special Committee of Five-and then curled up for a nap until May

-The official record of all these doings will be found in another column.

HERR KRAUZS's CONCERT .- To morrow night Tripler Hall will be a very Tower of Babel, for Herr Krauzs, the Hungarian vocalist, intends giving us the songs of thirty different languages and dialects. In addition to Herr Krauzs's performances, we shall have songs by Truffi, Gandolfi and Meyer, and instrumental solos by Griebel, Pychowski and Eltz. This novel entertainment will be well worth hearing.

LECTURES OF DR. HAAS .- Dr. late Surgeon-in-Chief of the Hungarian Army, and formerly Professor of Epidemic Diseases in the University of Vienna, is about to commence a course of Lec. tures on Physiology, at the Medical College, in this City. The course will be interesting, as well as instructive, and we trust it will be well at-

THE CASE OF E J. LATHAM .- The examina tion of this individual, charged with causing the death of George Robinett, the mammoth boy, by administering to him improper medicines, was held yesterday before the Coroner. The accused stated that he is about 40 years of age, and was born at Sag Harbor. He had nothing to say rela tive to the charge against him, and committed by the Coroner to await the action of the Grand Jury.

GRAND LODGE, I. O OF O. F .- The quarterly session of this body for the Southern district of New-York commenced on Wednesday evening. About one hundred new Representatives were duly qualified, and took their seats. The Lodge then proceeded to ballot for a Grand Secretary to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Benjamin J. Pentz. The ballot resulted in the election of John J. Davies, of Columbia Lodge No. 1, who received 310 votes ; J. Murphy 54, and J. Galbraith 19. The Grand Lodge is still in

In 1801 the tax was a trifle over one dollar for each inhabitant. In 1850, the tax upon each in habitant is within a fraction of four dollars. In making this estimate, it must be recollected that the taxes for local improvements are not placed in the table. All improvements are paid for by assessments upon the property directly benefitted. Is not this enormous increase in the expenses of maintaining our City Government a matter that should attract the serious attention of our taxpayers? Not a mere passing thought, but one that will last until the election. One that will remember who it is that squanders the public money, by the passage of Gas contracts and other kindred iniquities NIBLO's.-Last night this establishment was crowded to see the graceful and accomplished dancers, the four sisters Rousset. They appear again this evening.

THE AMERICAN RAILWAY GUIDE, published at the Pathfinder Office 138 Fulton at. should not be forgotten by the traveller when getting ready his "fixins" for a journey. It tells all that he wants to know on the subject of routes and conveyances, without any superfluous words.

The Committee of Italian political refugees call on all those who sympathise with the cause for which they are suffering, to assist them in procuring employment for several of their fellow countrymen-either as engineers, professors, bookkeepers, cabinet makers, cooks, servants, &c. Most of them speak several languages, and have a knowledge of English.

Any persons able to procure occupations for these exiles, are requested to write to the Italian Committee, at box 183, lower post office. We trust that the citizens of New York will promptly respond to this appeal. The Italian Committee deserves all possible assistance in its generous

The total number of arrests made in Oc 3,016; in November, 2,642; in December, 2,644 During the quarter 664 children have been restored to their parents; 33 rescued from drowning by the officers in the department. 37 fires have been extinguished, and 515 dwelling and stores found open, and secured by them. The average of police force on duty during the quarter has been 337. During the quarter 51 complaints have been made against policemen, of which 19 were dismissed. 6 policemen have been dismissed from the department, and 6 resigned.

THE 21st-STREET AFFAIR .- At the request of the parties charged with negligence in the erection of the buildings which fell in 21st-st. the Coroner on Wednesday examined Fleming, the foreman who had charge of the workmen on the buildings. His testimony was in substance, the ollowing:

"He had no direction of the foundation walls of the buildings, which were not completed when he commenced work. The brick walls, upon which he worked, were erected according to the direction of Mr. Thomas, the Architect, and he was of opinion that the materials used in their construction were as good as he had ever used, and considered the cause of the fall to be attributable to the frost and the heavy thaw which followed. The walls of the buildings were thoroughly anchored, which, by the giving way of the east formation wall, caused the whole to fall together. There were also some heavy gales of wind while the third story walls were in process of erection, and which prostrated the walls of several other buildings, but which did not injure those upon which the witness was employed."

CITY WHARF PROPERTY .- The Controller makes the following estimate of the value of the Wharf and Pier property belonging to the Corporation, together with the annual receipts and expenditures for building and repairing the same, from 1845 to 1851:

A NOVEL APPROPRIATION .- Among the reso lutions passed by the Board of Aldermen on Tuesday night, was one appropriating $100 to be expended in procuring a new jaw for John Haab, who was deprived of the original by an unlucky shot from the enemy in Mexico. This is about the strangest appropriation of the public funds that we have lately heard of. We have footed the bill for many Congressional, Legislative and Aldermanic jaws, and indirectly (Custom House officers being the medium) the people paid for considerable jaw at the John Young dinner the other day, but we never dreamed of being called upon to splice up all the bad jaws made by Mexican bullets, and we hope the appropriation will not be passed. The jaws we have eat up the public funds fast enough—let us have no new ones manufactured at the public expense.

THE SINGING CHILDREN .- Bradbury & Nash's Juvenile Concert crowded the Tabernacle. The ight of one thousand children, between the ages of six and twelve, was only equaled by the hearing of their admirable performances. The choruses were sung with a spirit and correctness which could only have been attained by the most thorough and careful training. Some of the girls exchoruses were more animating and inspiring. It was the most satisfactory entertainment of the kind which Messrs. Bradbury and Nash have yet given.

NEW LINE OF STAGES .- Messrs. Bertine & Ryerson have commenced running their stages from corner of Thirteenth st. and Tenth-avenue through Spring-st., Broadway and Grand-st, to the East River. Mesers. B. & R. were granted licenses to run their stages on this route by ex-Mayor Woodhull, a short time before the expiration of his term of office. When Mayor Kingsland came into power he revoked the licenses granted by Mayor Woodhull, and Messrs. B. & R. claim that he did so without authority, and in direct violation of their rights. They now ran their stages without licenses, and will thus test the question of the right of the Mayor to revoke licenses granted in good faith, and for a valuable consideration received by the City.

A NEW FACE .- By a resolution of the Common Council, the clock on the City Hall is to be furnished with new glass plates over the dials .-The glass is to be in one piece, and not patched together like the present. It is time some such improvement was made, for, since the clock has been illuminated, it has been almost impossible to decipher the time, the lines on the face having the appearance of so many hands to the clock.

IMPROVEMENT IN REAL ESTATE .- Three or four Insurance Companies are about purchasing the block of buildings, four in number, extending from the corner of William and Wall sts. to the Phenix Bank. They will then erect splendid new edifices in their place. The property on the corner of Wall-st. has been purchased for $110,000. This improvement will add very much to the appearance of the lower end of William-st.

The lot at the corner of Fifth avenue and Twentieth st., 92 by 170 feet, was recently sold for building purposes, at $40,000, cash down. San Francisco can hardly surpass this.

Dr. Morrill will lecture this evening at Knickerbocker Hall, corner of Eighth-av. and Twenty third-st. at 74 o'clock, on the Skin and its functions. Clo ng, Bathing. How to avoid taking Colds, &c. &c. Topics universal interest and importance.

MEDICAL REFORM .- Dr. Nichols gives his third free lecture on Hydropathy, this evening, at the Society Library. To-morrow, at 34 o'clock, Mrs. Gove Nichols gives a free lecture to ladies on Maternity, and the care of infeats.

THE LATE DEFALCATION.

Fourth Day's Investigation. The Court met at 31 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The excitement seems to have much abated; but few persons were present during the examination, and those principally Brokers.

The first witness sworn was Oscard Camman, of the firm of Camman & Whitehouse, Stock and Exchange Brokers, of Wailst. This witness testified that the firm had had frequent transactions with Mr. Tompkins, the last of these was on the 27th of January, when they sold him 150 haves of Farmer Lucan and Trust Caleston. shares of Farmers Loan and Trust Co's stock, amounting to $6,100, deliverable and payable within three days; on the 29th of January Mr. applied to me to transfer the stock ng that his clerk was sick and that he had much business on hand; I complied with his request, and had the stock transferred about 1 o'clock; he was not present when the transfers were made; after repeatedly sanding to his office for the check, we finally received on about ten minutes before 3 o'clock; it was not paid when presented at the Bank, for want of funds; Mr. Tompkin's standing for truth and ve-racity was good: I should have had no hesitation in selling him a larger amount of stock at that time.

Wm. Reynolds, sworn-I am clerk in the office of the last witness. This witness testified to re-ceiving the uncertified check, and that it was not paid on presentation at the Bank. Nathaniel G. Bradford, Jr., sworn—I am cierk to Jacob Little & Co., brokers. Tompkins was at our office on the 19th of Jan, Mr. Little was not in. He requested me to ask him to have 100 shares of Redding Stock, previously bought by him, transferred early. I afterwards understood that transferred early. I afterwards understood that it was transferred, and went to Mr. T.'s office for the amount, $3,500. I received the check It was deposited in the Union Bank and Edward Hopkins sworn—I am one of the firm of the firm of Hopkins & Westan. On the 29th of Jan. we paid Mr. Ray Tompkins for 300 shares of Farming Loan stock the amount $8287, and for 25 shares of Eric amounting to $2125. This stock, with the exception of 50 shares of Farmer's Loan, with the exception of 50 shares of Farmer's Loan, with the seme day. was transferred to us by him, all on the same day paid in a loan of $4500, and took the securities with him. Our confidence in him was very great.

At the time of his having this loan there was another of $8000 in various securities. On Wednes-day before the failure of Mr. T. I would have let him have 500 or 1000 shares of stock on credit. I would have lent him $5000 dollars without security on Wednesday previous to his failure.

Henry T. Morgan, sworn.—I am a stock and commission broker at 66 Wall-st.; I delivered 200 shares of Farmers' Loan to Ray Tompkins on Wednesday week; it was bought on the previous day; soon after taking the stock, I sent my clerk for a check for the amount ($6,800); he did not get it; at 3 o'clock it was handed to me by his clerk: it has not been paid: I paid him that day $1,300 for stock previously bought of him. The hour of 8 o'clock having arrived, the Court adjourned till 4 o'clock this afternoon, when the testimony will probably all be in.

From the Boletim de Govorno, Nov. 16.

The Blowing up of the Portuguese Frigate Donna Maria II.—Conduct of the Officers of the American Corvette Marion.
In fulfilment of a duty incumbent on us, it is indeed painful to give, in this place, an account of dreadful catastrophe on the 29th ultimo.

That day being the anniversary of the birth day of his Majesty the King Consort, was one of national festivity. At noos, the men-of-war, gaily decorated with flags, joined with the Monte Forte decorated with flags, joined with the monte Forter in firing the customary salutes. But all these cheerful demonstrations of loyalty and joy were, in a moment, changed to sadness and lamenta tion. At half past 2 o'clock a loud report—a sudden crash—shaking almost the whole town, drew the attention of all toward the Typa.

After a few moments of anxious gaze, on the lifting up of a dense cloud, overpowering was the sad spectacle of a burning bull, in the place of that fine frigate the Donna Maria II. The ship had blown up, and but a small part of the stern, in possession of the flames, was left to indicate the spot where so shorly before she had floated in brilliancy and in apparent safety. Her destruction was complete.

It is impossible to describe exactly the horror and consternation of all who were present at this disastrous scene; it is not in our to depict faithfully, and we will not hazard the attempt—to relize such feelings they must be experienced. The Donna Maria II. was a teak built ship. about forty years old, strong and capable of much service; but great as is her loss, it is nought to the grief and pain for that of nearly the whole of her gallant crew. Of 224 men, 188 perished in the explosion, among whom were her commander, Francis de Assis e Silva; five lieutenats: Placido Jose de Souza, Louiz Maria Bordallo, Francis Xavier Telles de Mello, Francisco Cypranio do Santo Raposo, and the native lieutenant Samgl, one midshipman, Joso Bernardo de Silva; the assistant surgeon, Jose Matthias Lucas D'Aguiar, and the purser, Manuel Marques.

These officers, were, for the most part, young men, well known to possess superior talents, and who had promised, at a future day, to add luster to the royal navy of Portugal.

It is impossible to explain the cause of this horrible catastrophe. From the strict discipline and proper order maintained on board the frigate carelessness at the time of firing the salute could not have caused it, more especially as the explosion did not take place until more than two hours af-terward, and no signs of fire were heard of by the survivors; neither were they observed on board the U.S. ship Marion, anchored close to her, nor at the Typa fort. These circumstances lead to the belief that the explosion was effected by the means of fire purposely placed in the magazine; but by whom, or how, God only knows; and it is probable that it will never be discovered.

We may not finish this article without making honorable mention of the officers and crew of the American corvette Marion, who, having happily got rid of the immense danger to which they were exposed by their proximity to the burning ship, gave the most prompt and effectual assistance which it was possible to give jat such a conjuc-ture. At imminent risk, and while explosions of small moveable magazines were continually or curring, ten men were picked up out of the water, or taken from the burning hull. Such intrepidity, with arduous endeavor, is beyond all praise, and well merits the commendations of the council of the Government, as published in the "Porce Official" of this number.

The bodies of the unfortunate victims of this calamity, which were found, were decently interred; that of the commander, recovered the day after the disaster, was buried with all the honors due to his rank, and was followed to the grave by all the civil, naval and military officers in the settlenent, and by great numbers of the residents, both native and foreign.

The bodies of Lieutenants Placido and Sampl and Midshipman Bernardo, were also interred with due honor. The former died at the Marine Hospital, the latter on board the Marion.

Five only are survivors to this day—one Portu-guese, two Lescars and two Chinese The for-mer, it is stated, is now out of danger, and from him some particulars have been obtained. All be remembers of the unfortunate Donna Maria H. is, that he was standing at the gangway he heard no report, he says, but subsequently felt a sensation of cold, and was astonished, when he came to his senses, to find himself in the Marion. The officers and men of that vessel gave every assistance to those they picked believe, ten or eleven-five or six of whom have

I hear that there were on board 345 barrels of powder, (of two arobas each.) Thirty-four bodies were picked out of the cabin the day before yesterday, and seventeen yesterday. It is supposed that about fifty Chinese are blown up, consisting of tailors, shoemakers and servants, two painters, Tanka women, bum-boat men, &c. the latter near alongside the vessel. The officer in charge of the fort in the Typa took all his clothes that morn ing out of the ship to air them. The sergeant there had a narrow escape from the fall of two there had a narrow escape from the fail of two dead-eyes, which went through the roof of the building into the fort. Most of the officers were married men. The Lascar lieutenant picked up by the Marion's boat, died on Wednesday, and had a military burial out in the campo.

The crew, in all, consisted of 225 hands, of whom 34 were on shore, either sick or on duty. From $40,000 to $50,000 were on board, belonging to the people and captain, brought from Goa to execute commissions. She had on board some merchan-

She had on board some merchan-ere. The officer who had the key of the magazine delivered it to the first lieutenant before he came on shore, beside the magazine was not that day opened; they always had three charges for salutes outside; and that too was in the after part of the ship—which part is not blowd up—the explosion was only forward under the The magazine was of brick and mortar, and other non-combustible materials.

RUMORED MUTINY ON BOARD A BOSTON VES-SEL AND BLOODY RETRIBUTION ON THE MUTI-NEERS!-A rumor was current about towa yes terday, which we have every reason to believe is true, that a serious mutiny occurred on board the bark William H. Shaler, Capt. Wm. H. Gardiner, bark William H. Shaler, Capt. Wm. H. Gardiner, Jr., master, on her late passage via the East Indies, to San Francisco. The report is, that the bark, owing to the sickness of some of the crew, arrived at Manilla short-handed, when Capt. Gardiner applied to the American Consul to obtain more seamen, that he might continue the voyage. This was found a very difficult matter, no good hands being disengaged in that port; but finally, and after much trouble, two men, one a Portuguese and the other English were induced to and after much trouble, two men, one a Portuguese and the other English, were induced to ship. These men were of notorious bad character, and known as such to the Consul, who cautioned Capt. Gardiner to keep a sharp look out for them. The bark sailed from Manilla, and on the third or fourth day out, the Captain ordered one of the new recruits to go aloft and arrange some The fellow refused : when the order was repeated in a peremptory manner. The sailor re repeated in a peremptory manner. The sailor replied impudently, and the Captain then advanced toward him, when the mutineer made an attempt to seize him by the throat, and the two clinched and fell upon the deck. At this moment the other sailor advanced to aid his comrade, with his sheathe knife out. Capt. G., by a violent effort, loosed one of his hands and managed to draw a revolver from his pocket, discharging one barrel into the neck of the mutineer he was struggling into the neck of the mutineer he was struggling with. The fellow relaxed his hold, and the Captain sprang to his feet just as the second sailor was about to stab him with his knife. The Captain instantly leveled his pistol and shot the fellow through the head, killing him instantly. The whole affair occupied but a moment, and began and reached its bloody termination before any one of the officers and crew, who were mostly below at the time, could come to Capt. Gardiner's assistance. The mutineer who was shot in the
